Reno Sparks Chamber of Commerce

Spring 2008

A Fast Start to 2008

By Valerie Clark, President, Clark and Associates of Nevada

The year 2008 is off to a tremendous start for Reno Sparks Chamber of Commerce members. In January, 300 Chamber members heard state Sen. Mark Amodei deliver a stirring address at our Annual Chair's Luncheon. Congressman Dean Heller previewed the upcoming year in Washington at a Chamber Policy Forum.

And more than 800 community leaders gained insight into the year ahead at Directions 2008, sponsored by the Chamber and EDawn.

In February, Mayor Bob Cashell briefed us on the many exciting things happening in Reno at a Chamber breakfast. Chamber members also met with our newest county commissioner, Kitty Jung. March featured an informative luncheon, titled, "Coming Soon to a Neighborhood Near You," highlighting major development initiatives in our region, attended by more than 230 people. We also held a free membership mixer at ArrowCreek Country Club.

What's more, 73 new members joined the Reno Sparks Chamber in the first 12 weeks of the year. And the Chamber's highly dedicated staff provided the unique brand of personalized member service that helps you achieve your own unique business objectives.

There is much more to come in the months ahead. The Chamber is planning a major event on health care, an issue that affects all of us. We will also be holding a broad variety of events, graduating two more Leadership Reno Sparks youth and adult program classes, and helping to elect pro-business candidates in the upcoming elections.

Your Chamber is on the move, on your behalf. Give us a call and let us know how we can help you achieve your business objectives for the coming year! ■

Chamber Web Site Sports a New Look

Visit us on the Web at Renosparkschamber.org and check out the new look for our Web site. Every week, thousands of people from around our region and around the nation (and increasingly the world) visit our site to learn more about our wonderful community.

The navigation has been streamlined, making the site much easier to use. All of our events are posted there, plus we've added lots of timely new content. Our always-popular Membership Directory is available, as well.

If you would like to advertise on the Chamber's Web site, and gain visibility to this large audience, contact Doug Kurkul at 775-337-3046 or dkurkul@renosparkschamber.org. ■

How Can We Help Advance Your Business Goals?

By Doug Kurkul, CEO, Reno Sparks Chamber of Commerce

Yet another member was looking for publicity for the grand opening of a new branch. The Chamber's staff and volunteers planned and handled the ribbon cutting, secured proclamations from elected officials and helped generate publicity for a highly successful event.

Only the Reno Sparks Chamber, our community's only full-service Chamber of Commerce, has two highly talented, membership representatives, Regina Lockwood and Mark Tulman, plus an experienced and savvy Director of Government Relations, Tray Abney, working full-time to embrace and advance your goals.

Mark Tulman is a former business owner and longtime executive with a heart for member service. You'll love working with him. Regina Lockwood is a former Reno television personality, and account executive and small business owner. She understands businesses like yours. Both are longtime Nevadans. Tray Abney was formerly Legislative Director to Governor Jim Gibbons and understands public policy – and most important, how it affects your business – inside and out.

This dedication to your unique goals, coupled with aggressive pro-business policy advocacy, the renewed Leadership Reno Sparks program and some of the best networking events in the county, add up to a winning formula for you and your business.

Mark, Regina and Tray are just a phone call away, as am I. Let us know your business objectives for 2008, and let's work together to make it a great year. ■

Every business is unique. Because of that, each one has individual business objectives and special challenges to tackle. When you join the Reno Sparks Chamber of Commerce, we embrace your goals, and work with you to help advance them.

Recently, a Chamber member in Sparks was looking for a secure location to park four trucks overnight. The Chamber made several calls, and the problem was solved.

Another Chamber member in central Reno was hoping to discuss an important policy issue with a key lawmaker. The Chamber set up a meeting between them the same week.

Ascuaga, Sims Join Chamber's Board

Your Chamber is led by a group of prominent local businesspeople and community leaders who are dedicated to our community and your business. The Chamber is pleased to welcome Stephen Ascuaga (John Ascuaga's Nugget) and Grant Sims (CB Richard Ellis) to the Chamber's Board of Directors.

Our Board members comprise businesses of all sizes and virtually every business sector in the Reno-Sparks community. A complete list of Board members is on page 12. ■

Three Hundred Attend Annual Event!

State Sen. Mark Amodei delivered a stirring address to 300 Chamber members in January at our annual Chair's Luncheon. The action-packed program was the perfect kick-off to an exciting year for members of the Reno Sparks Chamber.

Valerie Clark (Clark & Associates) took the helm as Chamber chair, succeeding Sean French (Wells Fargo), who served with tremendous dedication through a year of purposeful change as the Chamber's chair in 2007.

The attendance list included key policymakers from the cities of Sparks and Reno and Washoe County. Both French and Chamber CEO Doug Kurkul saluted Fred Boyd for his generous service as Acting CEO during the first half of 2007. The luncheon, held at Harrah's, was sponsored by ExpressJet Airlines and Sierra Pacific Federal Credit Union. ■

Valerie Glenn (The Glenn Group) and Roberta Ross (Ross Manor) receive the Chamber's annual Raymond I. Smith Civic Leader of the Year Award from the 2007 recipient, Norm Dianda (Q&D Construction). Learn more at www.renosparkschamber.org/civicleader.

State Sen. Mark Amodei makes an incredibly important point during his keynote address: businesses, directly or indirectly, pay all taxes. He called on Chamber members to get active in supporting pro-business public policies, which the Reno Sparks Chamber aggressively advances.

Valerie Clark (Clark & Associates) assumes the mantle as the 2008 chair of the Reno Sparks Chamber. Health care policy and costs will be one of her top priorities.

President, LR2 Consulting Group; Chair, Business Leadership Council, Reno Sparks Chamber of Commerce

Washoe County District Attorney Richard Gammick, Reno Police Chief Michael Poehlman, Washoe County Sheriff Mike Haley, Sparks Police Chief John Dotson and Nevada Highway Patrol Major Tony Almaraz share the top priorities of their respective agencies at the March Leadership Reno Sparks Adult Workshop on law enforcement and criminal justice.

Little did I know when I boarded a charter bus to Lake Tahoe with 35 professionals that my life would change forever! Two days of executive leadership development by nationally recognized trainers, interaction with community leaders, and the designation as the "Best Class Ever," opened the door to me to benefit from the region's premier leadership program. Have you ever been to 911 Parr Boulevard and had the Sheriff roll out the red carpet for you? Anchored the evening news? Toured the Air Communications and Emergency Operations Center at the Reno-Tahoe International Airport? Dialogued with the Governor on issues impacting the region? Well, I have and you should, too!

Leadership Reno Sparks develops savvy business leaders through a behind-the-scenes look at the inner workings of the Truckee Meadows. Our goal is to identify and develop current and future leaders through a comprehensive program designed to increase knowledge and awareness of the issues and challenges facing this community.

For nearly 25 years, Leadership Reno Sparks has graduated more than 1300 leaders. These alumni are tightly woven into the fabric of Reno, Sparks and Washoe County, making key decisions in board rooms and public offices. We are proud of the expertise, passion and commitment of our graduates who have made substantial improvements in our community. Our leaders come from the fields of business, education, law enforcement, government, non-profit, finance, public office, consulting, advertising/public relations, real estate, law, and the list goes on.

Since 1985 each class has boasted that it is the "Best Class Ever." This is our lighthearted way of continuing the quality and commitment to achieving the vision of Leadership Reno Sparks.

I agree, each class is the "Best Class Ever," and Leadership Reno Sparks is the "Best in its Class!" ■

Chamber Launches 10-Part Business Success Seminars

The Chamber and Wells Fargo, with onsite support from Truckee Meadows Community College, are proud to present a new 10-part Business Success Seminar series.

"Each Business Success Seminar provides critical instruction on a key aspect of a successful business plan," explains Chamber Board of Directors member Dan Allen (ITS Logistics, The CFO Group), who helped design the series and select the sterling lineup of expert speakers. "Participants may sign up for the entire series, or attend individual seminars."

The seminars are priced right – just $20 for Chamber members which includes a box lunch. (Non-members can attend, but at a higher price.) The sessions are fast-paced, running from 11:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. All are held at TMCC's Meadowood Center at 5270 Neil Road in Reno. ■

The Reno Sparks Chamber thanks the following members for playing a key role in planning the Business Success Seminar series:

Peter Williamson, ACTIONCoach;
Dan Allen, ITS Logistics;
Scott Waite, S. Waite & Associates;
and Ralph Hartmann,
Hartmann & Associates.

Congressman Heller Previews Year Ahead in Washington

Election-year politics will make it difficult for Congress to pass legislation to address immigration reform, extend President Bush's tax cuts or help improve our national business climate, Congressman Dean Heller told a standing-room only Reno Sparks Chamber Policy Forum audience at Chamber headquarters in January.

The first-term lawmaker, who recently won a highly prized seat on the coveted House Financial Services Committee, outlined the many ways in which he is fighting for our interests in the nation's capital. With his new committee assignment, Heller will have an even greater opportunity to affect issues related to housing, mortgage lending and banking.

Mayor Cashell Provides Inside Look at City Government

Reno Mayor Bob Cashell addressed 160 Chamber members over breakfast in February, providing an inside look at the city's major priorities for 2008. The popular mayor explained how prudent financial management over the years has put the city in a much better position to weather the current economic downturn than otherwise would have been possible.

In a free-wheeling Q&A session that followed his opening remarks and PowerPoint presentation, the mayor answered Chamber members' questions on a broad variety of issues.

The Chamber plans a similar event for later this year featuring Sparks Mayor Geno Martini. The breakfast was held at the Atlantis. ■
