For Immediate Release – Reno/Sparks, NV (7-20-10) – The Reno-Sparks Chamber of Commerce announced that Kara Player has been elected to the Chamber’s Board of Directors as the Liaison from the Reno Tahoe Young Professionals Network (YPN).

“The Reno-Sparks Chamber is deeply committed to working with the Reno Tahoe Young Professionals Network to continue to make our region a great place for young professionals to live and pursue their careers,” said Doug Kurkul, Chamber CEO.

Player is a fourth generation Reno resident who serves as Director of Sales for Wolf Run Golf Club and Dayton Valley Golf Club. Earlier, she was corporate sales manager at Atlantis Casino Resort Spa and Tournament/Event Coordinator at Wolf Run Golf Club.

The Reno Tahoe Young Professionals Network was established in 2007 to provide younger workers (ages 21 to 39) living or looking to move to the Reno-Tahoe area with an opportunity to grow and develop professionally in northern Nevada. The non-profit organization is a strategic partner with EDAWN and the Reno-Sparks Chamber of Commerce.
